

The Palm Beach County Elections Office is looking for more Election Workers to help Palm Beach County vote in the 2022 Primary and General Elections.

You can make a difference in our community by joining our team of nonpartisan Election Workers. It takes 5,000 Election Workers to staff our polling places on Election Day. Our Election Workers are engaged citizens from all walks of life who are committed to serving the voters of Palm Beach County and ensuring fair and accurate elections are conducted. On Election Day, we count on these civic-minded individuals to efficiently assist voters through the entire voting experience pleasantly and professionally.

All of our Election Worker positions are paid. Election Workers can earn between $190 - $320 per Election Day worked. Rate of pay includes Election Day, Orientation, and Training.

Election Workers are required to attend training before each election. Before becoming an Election Worker in Palm Beach County, you must attend a virtual one-hour orientation session that provides an overview of the process. By law, all Election Workers are required to complete training before each election. Training is a combination of online and in-person courses at various locations throughout Palm Beach County.

You can learn more about Election Worker requirements, positions, and submit an application on our website, VotePalmBeach.gov.

If you are friendly, can confidently work with voters, and would like to learn more about the electoral process, then please apply today!

Step 1: Complete an Election Worker application online.

Step 2: You will be contacted by a member of our Election Worker Department with information about upcoming Orientation Sessions.

To follow up on a submitted application, or if you have any questions, please contact the Poll Worker Department by calling (561) 656-6200 option 3, or by email to pollworker@votepalmbeach.gov.

Thank you for your interest in helping us serve on the front lines of our democracy.

Your Palm Beach County Elections Team
